Trails

The Donald and Beverley Jones Memorial Footpath meanders on and off quiet country roads, connecting preserved lands along the creek.

Numerous bike racks and parking pull-offs can be accessed along the trail, making it suitable for bikers, leisurely drivers, and walkers. Trail-head signs are located where the trail crosses from preserved land onto roads. Maps are posted at these trail-heads.

A number of loop trails allow hikers the opportunity to get off the road and enjoy some spectacular scenery:

Loop 1: The southern-most loop, near the Prallville Mills is about 1 mile long and meanders through fields.

Loop 2: Hike through woods, fields and along the road through the scenic Rosemont Valley. Includes a creek crossing and a steep slope. Approx. 2 miles.

Loop 3: A 1.5 mile loop through fields, woods, beautiful hemlock groves, stunning cliffs by the creek and along a dirt road. Includes a creek crossing.
